The Toby Center

Dr. Mark Roseman is the CEO of the Toby Center for Family Transitions, Inc., which he founded in South Florida in 2008. The Center provides a unique array of services to assist families when going through hardship. We offer aid to families going through all different situations.

Roseman's program is a national model for serving the divorcing population and their children, with locations across Florida. Roseman has worked with children and parents since 1998 when he served as an advocate for joint custody with David L. Levy, Esq., and President Emeritus of the Children's Rights Council in Washington, DC. In 2002-2008 Roseman served as Assistant Director for Child Access Services for the CRC developing training for supervised visitation and opening visitation locations in metro DC.

Roseman frequently quotes America's foremost pioneer in child psychiatry, Dr. Karl Menninger who says, "What children see at home, they will do to society." The Toby Center philosophy is that through assisting parents to be more confident and satisfied, their children will have a better opportunity to thrive.

Dr. Roseman is a certified family mediator, specializing in high conflict divorce, parental alienation; the Florida court required “co-parenting class” and is a Certified Family Life Educator.

The TC is a 501©3 non-profit organization founded in 2008. The staff firmly believes that when children are able to properly adjust to the trauma of separation and conflict between their parents, they are more likely to experience a better quality of life. They provide a unique array of services to assist families when going through hardship. They offer aid to families going through all different situations whether it’s a separation or single parenting the Toby Center can accommodate any family seeking resolution. The TC can provide a comfortable safe environment for family mediation, supervised visitation, and counseling. The TC also offers numerous courses to help create positive co-parenting arrangements, in order for your children to have the best possible transition through your changing family situation.
