The Toby Center

- What: Toby Center Child provides supervised visitation, child exchange, and therapeutic visitation services. TC offers parents and children safety, neutrality and comfort for transfer and supervised access/visitation. When appropriate, parents and children will enjoy our location, including museums, university campuses and recreation centers. Center monitors are professional, trained, many are parents and come from different field as education or psychology.
- Who: Any parent, guardian or other family member with or without court orders seeking neutral, family friendly venue for child transfer and supervised child access and visitation.
- When: Service times are flexible. Normal weekend schedule is available Saturday and Sunday with sessions scheduled 10 a.m. – 12 p.m. and 12 – 2 p.m. Child transfers are available at any time during the week. Family monitors are flexible we try to accommodate all parties. Weekday and evening appointments are available.
- How: All service fees are based on affordability and sliding scale. Standard Visitation: $45 - $80 per hour. Therapeutic Visitation: $90 - $110 per hour. Initial intake fee of $90 per parent or guardian. Child Exchange is a flat fee of $49 per one-way exchange per day or evening. Prepayment required for all services with credit card or money order.
- Why: All family members benefit because:
- Compliance with child support obligations is linked to quality access.
 - Out family friendly supervised visitation reduces the emotional conflict between parents and children.
 - Expedites the transition to a more natural relationship between parents and children.
 - Research has found that family friendly child access reduces the conflict level between parents.
